

INCISIVE MD begins beta testing period for orthopedic release

Portland, OR, June 2008 – CrossCurrent, Inc. has released its beta version of INCISIVE MD designed specifically for orthopedic surgeons. The orthopedic release will provide reimbursement solutions for hand, foot, full joint, sports medicine, and general orthopedic surgeons.

About CrossCurrent, Inc.

CrossCurrent, founded in 2002, is a healthcare information technology company dedicated to helping its customers increase revenue. CrossCurrent's INCISIVE software solutions provide innovative planning, coding, and revenue management solutions designed specifically for orthopedic, spine, and neurosurgeons.